Decision Of Supreme Court
Sets Aside Verdict Of County Court

In an opinion handed down late Saturday, June 25, by the Supreme Court of the State of Pennsylvania, the decision of the Lawrence county court in the case against Fred Mayberry is reversed "without prejudice to the right of the commonwealth to prosecute the defendant for the crime of involuntary manslaughter." In effect it is said this frees Mayberry of the charge of murder and manslaughter but leaves the way open for a new trial on the charge of involuntary manslaughter.

On September 11, 1926, Mayberry's automobile crashed into that of James Gibson at the corner of Leisure and Highland avenues, killing the nine year old daughter of Mr. Gibson and wrecking the car. Mayberry was indicted on a charge of murder on the first count and manslaughter on the second count.

Two Verdicts Returned.

On December 18, 1926, the case was called to trial, and on December 23, the verdict was reached. Following its deliberations, the jury returned a verdict of "Guilty of Involuntary Manslaughter with a recommendation for mercy."

This verdict was refused by Judge Hildebrand on the grounds that involuntary manslaughter was not laid in the charge. The jury again retired and this time returned a verdict of guilty of manslaughter. Following the refusal of the motion for a new trial, Judge Hildebrand sentenced Mayberry to pay $100.00 and costs and un-

Plane Commander To Leave

PLANS FLIGHT AS SCIENTIFIC TRIP

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., June 27.—Commander Richard E. Byrd is not going to be stamped into a premature stopoff for Paris in the Monoplane America, thus defeating the scientific aim of his repeatedly delayed expedition. That object is, among other things to establish standard conditions of trans-Atlantic flying in cooperation with the United States Weather Bureau.

His difference," said Ford, "may not be apparent to the casual eye because the improvements have been largely mechanical and are contained within the planes themselves. Nevertheless they are there."

The fleet will visit Buffalo today, proceeding to Geneva and Schenectady tomorrow. Boston will be the objective of the flight Wednesday; New York Thursday; and Friday Philadelphia and Baltimore will be visited. July 2 the fleet will swing to Pittsburgh, visiting after that the following cities: Cleveland, Kalamazoo, Dayton, Columbus, Cincinnati, Louisville, Memphis, Pine Bluff, Ar., Dallas, Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Wichita, Omaha, Moline, Ill., Chicago and Grand Rapids.

Walts On Weather

Byrd will take off just as soon as the Weather Bureau conditions are satisfactory and "not until then," he asserted firmly today.

"Let's go," has been the plea of at least two members of the expedition of four, but Byrd, actuated by the scientific factor involved and the added fact that he holds the lives of three men in his hands, has re-

Fear Deadlock In Arms Parley On Capital Ships

Little Comment At Geneva, But Indications Point To Deadlock

U. S. DELEGATE SAYS NO DEADLOCK

No Decision On Whether Or Not Capital Ships Shall Be Discussed

By H. K. REYNOLDS,

LONDON, June 27.—A deadlock seemed today to be developing in the naval limitation conference at Geneva over the issue of capital ships.

There is comparatively little comment, although it is reported that the conference may be adjourned for a month to give the British government time to adjust its views privately before the limitation program is tackled again. It was the British delegates who raised the issue of capital ships at Geneva.

British government officials do not believe that W. C. Bridgeman, first lord of the admiralty, and one of the leaders of the British delegation, will back down upon his demand for further discussion of the limitation of capital ships.

Meanwhile the admiralty professes to be "nonplussed" by the refusal of the Americans to take up the British proposal.

The Daily News, in commenting upon the situation, expressed the fear that, if the Geneva conference fails

Court Suggests Investigation
Of Heavy Fine In Mayor's Court

Sentence Day was observed today by Judge R. Lawrence Hildebrand in the usual way, with a parade of violators taking their turn before the bar for the sentence of the court.

The judge seemed in a rather lenient mood today, many of those coming before him being paroled, others with light sentences, and a few getting rather salty portions handed out.

Frank Boron drew the stiffest sentence of the lot, getting a fine of $500.00 and costs imposed and sentence to the Allegheny County Workhouse for 2 years. He was up for selling and possessing intoxicating liquor, this being his third offense. His father John Boron was paroled on a charge of possessing liquor on payment of a fine of $300.00 and costs and fined $100.00 and costs and paroled on a charge of using automobile plates other than those issued for his machine.

Court Suggests Investigation

In passing sentence on Pasquale Monico, Judge Hildebrand suggested that the man investigate a previous sentence by the mayor of the city. Monico said that he had been before the mayor on a charge of possession of liquor and had paid $300.00 fine. "Why such an amount?" asked the court. The defendant said he did not know, and the court said he ought to investigate it a little. Judge Hildebrand fined him $100.00 and costs and paroled him. His charge was possessing liquor.

Ben F. Mason was fined $200.00 and costs and paroled for two years for possession of liquor. Oscar Granis was fined $50.00 for fornication.

Mary Dorol was fined $250.00 and costs and paroled for two years for possession of liquor. J. Jordan was fined $100.00 and costs and paroled and his wife Appolonia Jordan was PITTSBURGH, June 27.—Twelve thousand central Pennsylvania coal miners today started on their last week's work until a new wage agreement is negotiated with the operators.

Since the general walkout on April 1, these miners in district 2, United Mine Workers of America, have continued to dig coal at their former wage scale under a temporary agreement.

But at the recent unsuccessful wage parley in Philadelphia the operators insisted they could no longer pay the Jacksonville scale of $7.50 a day and the miners contended that a pay cut accepted now would presage other re-

PHILADELPHIA, June 27.—Ten of the main shipways of Hog Island, near here, the principal shipbuilding plant of the Government during the World War, were a smoldering mass of ruins today following a fire of undetermined origin.

Six persons were injured, including Edward D. Diver, Chief of the Hog Island fire company, when they attempted to prevent the spread of the blaze which threatened 75 steel ships anchored near the shipways.

Only the heroic work of the local fire fighters augmented by ten engine companies from Philadelphia prevented several vessels anchored at a nearby pier from being ignited.

Army, Navy And Civilian
Planes To Be In Pacific
Contest

By ELLIS H. MARTIN,

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—A genuine race for mastery of the Pacific by air loomed today.

With the take-off for Honolulu of the giant army monoplane piloted by Lieutenants Lester Maitland and Albert Hegenberger definitely set for Tuesday, and final preparations being rushed for the take-off of the civilian and naval planes, it appeared possible that all three might be in the air at the same time.

It looked today as though the three entries in the thrilling aerial derby might take the air in this order:

Civilian entry, piloted by Ernest Smith, air mail pilot, with Captain Charlie Carter as navigator, late today.

Army entry, with Lieutenants Maitland and Hegenberger piloting, early tomorrow.

Naval entry, piloted by Richard Grace, the aviator with a broken wing, late Tuesday.

All Three In Air
If this situation develops, as it appeared likely today, all three planes would be in the air simultaneously, two headed westward with the sun over the 2,400 landless miles and one headed eastward.

Smith and Carter and Maitland and Hegenberger will have the Hawaiian Islands as their goal. Grace, hopping from Hawaii, will have the Pacific coast as his goal, with Los Angeles as the destination if fuel and oil hold out.

Just what was holding up the departure of the army plane was not plain today. It was announced as ready when the aviators arrived here from San Diego Saturday, but today Lieut. Maitland was positive it would

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 27.—Charles Dorworth, Secretary of Forests and Waters today was working on a proposed plan of reorganization of his department which will include the creation of at least three new bureaus. Summary of the work of the department and its future plans was available today in a report to the governor by Dorworth's office.

The report revealed that the department will be able to proceed on its part of the Cook forest and Pymatuning reservoir project in the near future. An appropriation of $450,000 for the Cook project was contingent upon the association sponsoring the plan raising $200,000. The association has reported that it expects to reach the required total about July 1.

On the Pymatuning project Dorworth reported that options have been secured on 17 parcels of land and that the entire holdings needed can

Dunlap Tells Of Boys' Work

Probation Officer Discusses
Need Of Children's Home
In County

LIVELY MEETING OF ROTARY CLUB

An instructive talk by County Probation Officer Jack Dunlap on the question of work among boys followed by a lively general discussion was on the program of the Rotary club which met for their weekly luncheon at the Fountain Inn, Monday at noon.

One of the questions that entered into the discussion of the hour was that of a home for children in the county. Mr. Dunlap said that he thought that the number of cases disposed of in the juvenile court could be greatly reduced if there was a home under good supervision where children could be placed before they became involved in grave faults or crime.

Mr. Dunlap said at the present time there were 43 children from Lawrence county in Morgantown, 11 in the Margaret Henry Home and about 15 in private homes of the community which were under his jurisdiction. He said that the children of the county cost the county a sum of $13,566 and $5,771 for hospital expenses during the past year. In Butler county the children cost the county a little over $6,000.

In being questioned as to what had been done towards the building of a home for children, he said that some talk had been of making a home for children out of the old city home near the present county home on the Ellwood-New Castle road. He said that there were two acts under which such a home could be built. One was for the receiving of donations of property or money for a children's home. The other was with regard to the building of a school for children. Thus if anyone could see their way to donate property or money for the erection or running of such an institution, it was likely that such a project could be accomplished.

Mr. Dunlap said that most of the cases that came before him came from the laxity of the parents of the children although there were some exceptional cases where the boys came from the best homes and finest parents.

Mr. Dunlap said that he had the greatest praise for the Boy Scouts and the great good they were doing for the welfare of the boys and the future citizens of the city. He says that he can recall only one Boy Scout among the many that have come before him. Over 20 percent of the cases among boys came from the city. One member of the Rotary club said that he thought a more severe enforcement of the pool room and curfew ordinance would help the condition while another said that the providing of a place for children to play especially in the evening would eliminate much of the trouble.

There will be no meeting of the Rotary club on next week on account of the day of the weekly luncheon coming on Independence Day.

not leave before Tuesday. All day Sunday radio experts tinkered with a new installation on the plane. Just what it was a secret. A test flight was made and Lieut. Maitland was manifestly pleased with the result.

Cause Delay

Several things were mentioned as holding up departure of the army plane. One was the non-arrival of General Mason Patrick, head of the army air service, who was expected Sunday from Los Angeles. He was looked for today. Another was cross wind currents at both Crissey field and at the Oakland municipal airport, which Lieut. Maitland feared would be disastrous if his big tri-motor Fokker plane attempted to take the air with a full load of more than 1,100 gallons of gasoline.

Meanwhile word came from Honolulu that Grace was waiting only the arrival of a propeller being rushed to him on the steamer Maui. The propeller was sent by air mail from Pittsburgh to catch the steamer Maui due at Honolulu late today. Air experts here said that if his plane was in readiness otherwise it would require only a few minutes to adjust the new propeller and enable the aviator to be on his way on his daring solo flight.

His attorneys filed an appeal with the Supreme Court which was heard some time ago and the decision was handed down Saturday. The decision will probably have a far-reaching effect in automobile cases in Pennsylvania for it was the first of its kind ever taken to the Supreme Court.

Just what the findings of the Supreme Court were, and the reasons for the reversal are not known as yet.

While District Attorney J. Elder Bryan was not certain today, he indicated that it was probable that Mayberry would be tried on the charge of involuntary manslaughter, and perhaps on two indictments which have never been tried, one a charge of reckless driving and one a charge of driving while intoxicated.

This situation is expected to bring the public into the controversy with a demand for a settlement to be followed by a resumption of negotiations broken off at Miami and ultimately by the ratification of a new wage agreement.

Miss Jane Phillips Weds Norman Blackmore

One of the loveliest June weddings was solemnized in Trinity Episcopal church Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock when Miss Jane Agnes Phillips, daughter of Mrs. Charles A. Phillips, Highland avenue, became the bride of Norman Lawrence Blackmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Blackmore of Edgewood, Pa. Palms and ferns intermingled with flowers, and tall white standards at the alter decorated the church. Rev. Edward Owen, pastor of the Trinity Episcopal church of Sharon officiated with the ring ceremony.

The bride who was given in marriage by her cousin Elmer Isaac Phillips, of Cleveland, Ohio, was attractive in a gown of white satin, and her veil of white tulle was caught with a coronet of duchess lace and orange blossoms. She carried a showy bouquet of orchids, white roses, and lilies of the valley. The wedding march from Mendelssohn was played by Professor Paul Brown Patterson.

Miss Elizabeth Kirk, as maid of honor, was attired in a gown of pale green chiffon, and carried blue delphinium and yellow roses. The bridesmaids Mrs. W. W. Horner, in a gown of yellow chiffon, and Miss Virginia Blackmore, sister of the groom, in French blue chiffon, both carried showers of delphinium and yellow roses. Arthur W. Jones, of San Angelo, Texas, was best man.

The ushers were Thomas G. Simmons of Colorado, Springs, Col., Joseph M. McCabe of Pittsburgh, James Blackmore of Edgewood, Pa., Dr. W. W. Horner, John Gordon, and John Warden McIlwraith of this city.

Mrs. Charles A. Phillips, mother of the bride wore a gown of black chantilly lace over flesh with shoulder bouquet of pink roses and delphinium. Mrs. George C. Blackmore, mother of the groom, was attired in orchid georgette with shoulder bouquet of yellow roses.

A reception for 250 guests supplemented the ceremony at the New Castle Field Club, where color tones of blue and yellow prevailed in each detail. Refreshments were served and covers were arranged for 20 at the bride's table. Orchestra music was furnished for dancing.

ATTEND WEDDING IN CAMBRIDGE, O.

Mrs. C. W. Foulke, Boyles avenue, Dr. and Mrs. Elmer Beecher Russell of New Wilmington, and Miss Katherine Foulke of Pittsburgh were among the out of town guests attending the wedding of Miss Mildred Pluma Luper, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Roscoe Luper Foulke to Dr. Harold Frederick Meese of Buffalo, N. Y. Saturday.

It was decided to decorate the church and parsonage. Dr. Foulke officiated, the bride being given in marriage by her mother, Miss Gladys Foulke, sister of the bride played several numbers preceding the ceremony followed by Lohengrin's wedding march.

A large bridal party attended the bride who was lovely in a gown of white satin, made in train, and her veil arranged with coronet of lace was caught with white heather.

A reception for relatives and out of town guests followed at the parsonage, and luncheon was served at the Cononial Inn, with 25 at the tables.

After a two weeks wedding trip Dr. and Mrs. Meese will return to Buffalo where they will reside at 68 Delwood Road.

YOUTH AND THE FOURTH

AS INDEPENDENCE DAY approaches there is general disposition to give Young America an opportunity extraordinary to blow off steam, but public opinion, at the same time, demands that juvenile patriots make their celebration safe for themselves and others.

For many years the youth of the land observed the Fourth of July so enthusiastically that the toll of death, lost fingers and blinded eyes made a curb imperative. Today firecrackers are too powerful and communities too congested to permit mixing the two.

Aside from the danger, the sick and nervous and those who cannot sleep in the midst of such racket look forward each year with dread to the day which otherwise might inspire in them far different emotions. The same day that brings so much fun and excitement to the younger generation is filled with torment and nervous shock for the older.

Youth will have its fling, especially on the Fourth, but it should be sufficiently considerate of its elders to confine its "fling" to safe and sane manifestations of patriotic fervor and its innate love of powder and noise.

Conditions in most communities have been improved in recent years through ordinances limiting use of firecrackers to July 4 and prohibiting the more dangerous explosives. But the "Safe and Sane Fourth" movement will not prevent the loss of hundreds of human lives and eyes and property worth thousands of dollars on the fourth day of July in the year 1927.

"Make the Fourth of July safe for humanity," would be an appropriate slogan for the war on the unsafe and insane Fourth.

WHERE TO HOLD IT

IT IS more than passing strange that New York City which entertained—or was entertained by—the national convention of the Democratic party three years ago is not among the active bidders for the big show of 1928. Is one to assume that the last convention satisfied New York's appetite for such things for a long time to come?

Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago and several Western cities have put their best boosters on the scent of the Democratic national committee with gifts to offer if their respective cities are chosen. Some want to prove they are big enough to handle a convention of the first water. Others want the advertising.

Needless to say the would-be convention cities heard with something of a shock the suggestion from Democratic leaders that the 1928 convention be held on the campus of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, where is buried Thomas Jefferson, revered founder of the party. They argue the hallowed environment would tend to bring about a return to true Jeffersonian principles.

One idea suggests another. How much more appropriate to hold the Democratic convention at the birthplace of Andrew Jackson. Why not pick the birthplace of a fighter for the convention place? The convention might join the fight that has been waging for years between North and South Carolina to decide in which of the Carolinas Jackson was born. Some satirist will observe at this point that The Hague or Geneva might offer the atmosphere the Democratic party needs most.

No wonder mosquitos sing. They are not bothered by mosquitos.

HUMAN MAGIC
The powers of man from day to day
Continue to increase.
We see old barriers thrust away
And old-time terrors cease.
The magic of the human race
Has mastered time and conquered space.

The minute more important grows.
Within a single day
A man may leave to join with those Full half the world away.
And he may send his voice afar
To where the countless millions are.

The miles were long in olden days,
And neighbors dwelt apart;
They shaped their thoughts and fixed their ways.

To speed of horse and cart,
And those who ventured down to sea
For months were watched for anxiously.

But now the miles are swift and short.

And through the open sky
The sturdy voyagers report.

Their wanderings far and high.
A boy across the seas has swirled
And made a neighborhood of the world!

Where, Oh, Where Are Stars Of Yesteryear's Film Plays?

Early Favorites on the Screen.

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., June 27.—What has become of the movie stars of yesterday? The men and women who were the film favorites of a decade ago when the silent drama was in its infancy, where are they now? Death has claimed a few, some have married and retired from the screen, others, their brief vogue over, have slipped into oblivion or extra roles.

A recent inquiry has furnished much interesting information about the stars of the past.

Marguerite Clark, once Mary Pickford's only rival, has married and has been living in New Orleans.

Harold Lockwood, Wallace Reid, Earle Williams, Max Linder, Barbara LaMarr and Olive Thomas have answered the call of the Great Director.

Olga Petrova, once a Metro star, has been appearing in plays written by herself.

Crane Wilbur, hero of that classic, "The Perils of Pauline" in 1913, is touring the country in a vaudeville sketch.

Pearl White, also a serial heroine, has been living in Paris for the past five years.

Two Who Went Abroad

Pauline Frederick has been in London the past season, acting for screen and stage. She refuses to take supporting roles. Nazimova also has been in England.

Louise Glaum left the films when the "vampire" vogue died.

Ruth Roland, once queen of the serials, now is very wealthy through real estate deals in Los Angeles.

Ethel Clayton makes an occasional picture between legitimate engagements.

Enid Bennett, now Mrs. Fred Niblo, once Doug Fairbank's leading woman, seldom appears on the screen now.

Elaine Hammerstein hasn't returned to the films since she was injured in an automobile accident.

Clara Kimball Young, one of the first motion picture stars, refused to take featured roles and left the films. She since has appeared in vaudeville.

Claimed by Legitimate.

Vivian Martin, one of the early Fox stars, has been on the legitimate stage for many years.

Fame in moviedom is apt to come suddenly and swiftly and just as swiftly its mantle slips from the shoulders of the star of today to cover tomorrow's sensation with its glory.

The public, ever eager to pay tribute to the newcomer, applauds, while the favorite of yesterday passes from the screen almost unnoticed.

THESE ARE THE HAPPY DAYS!

With the coming of summer, Chicago is flocking to its Lake Michigan bathing beaches. Here is a scene at the Oak Street beach.

FILM STARS FACE SALARY CUT

Pity the poor movie star! Producers have decided fabulous salaries must cease and there is consternation in filmdom. However, there are four actresses who remain unconcerned by the decision of the Motion Picture Producers' Association to cut the salaries of everyone connected with the screen in an effort to put the films on a sounder economic basis. Colleen Moore, left above, Dolores Del Rio, right above, Pola Negri, left below and Bebe Daniels aren't worried over the edict, for they are sufficiently wealthy to be in a position to leave their organizations rather than accept a cut in salary.

curious fact that many of the ladies who have written to ask for help along on the flights to Hawaii, have signed themselves only with initials.

A Los Angeles woman of 92 took a 20-minute airplane flight and announced she'd like to own one. Tunaboo, watch for her!

AUTO CRASHES INTO BUGGY

Driver Of Buggy Is Taken To Hospital For Treatment

ANOTHER AUTO HIT BY ENGINE

Clark Ray, of Coalton, sustained a severe injury of the right shoulder and other minor injuries, Saturday evening, when as he was driving his horse and buggy north along Highland avenue between Clemmons boulevard and Norwood avenue, the machine of Clarence Stewart of 1702 Highland avenue, going in the same direction, ran into a rear wheel of the buggy, knocking it against a tree and badly damaging it.

The horse ran away following the accident but was soon captured and taken in charge by Mr. Stewart. Mr. Ray, driver of the horse and buggy, was thrown out of the buggy and injured. Mr. Ray was first taken to the office of a physician, who directed him taken to the Shenango Valley Hospital, where an X-ray was taken to determine the full extent of his injuries. He was able to return to his home Sunday afternoon on account of his injuries not being considered serious.

Hit By Engine
Frank Macchia, 315 Reynolds street, narrowly escaped death Sunday morning, while traveling north on South Mill street. He did not notice, until right up on them, that the guard gates of the Pennsylvania railroad crossing were down. There were no red warning light on them, he claims.

Putting on his brakes, he stopped his car right at the crossing, just as an engine came to the crossing and struck the rear end of his machine which had swung over on the crossing tracks. His machine was badly exercised develops, especially exercising your discretion.

Council Will Give Further Consideration To Request For Support.

County Detective And State Police Investigate Harbor Road Report

Solicitor Robert M. White on Monday presented to city councilmen during regular session an opinion which said cities of the third-class can donate $500 to the assistance and support of a troop of engineers.

Recently a delegation of Chamber of Commerce members, headed by James K. Love, told council that efforts are being made to raise $1,500 and the city was requested to furnish $500.

Today Mayor Dunlap said that he would not vote to donate $500 to the troop, after which White's opinion was ordered "received and placed on file."

However, it is probable that the matter will be brought up again, after councilmen had more time to consider the request will vote favorably or unfavorably.

The mounted engineers is a non-combat unit and in time of war builds roads and bridges.

OLSEN, BURNS PRESENT LOW PAVING BIDS

Bids For Number Of Paving Jobs Are Opened By Council.

Bids were opened Monday during council session for the paving of certain sections of Beckford street, Winslow and Maryland avenues and referred for checking to the city engineer.

The Victor Olsen Contracting company of Youngstown presented the low bid of $44,816.10, for brick and Burns Bros. of New Castle, the low bid of $42,069.40 for concrete.

Asphalt material was also included in the specifications and the Olsen company was the only firm of contractors to submit a bid on this material, their price being $43,664.10.

The bids presented by the Olsen company and Burns Bros. were below the estimate furnished by the city engineer.

The engineer's estimated cost of paving the three sections: brick, $47,145.96; concrete, $45,555.90 and asphalt, $51,415.90.

The bids:

Victor Olsen Contracting company: brick, $44,816.10; concrete, $42,912.10; asphalt, $43,664.10.

Woods & Golder: brick, $47,929.60; concrete, $43,909.60.

Thorson company: brick, $45,508.90; concrete, $45,818.90.

Burns Bros: brick, $48,469.40; concrete, $42,069.40.

City Engineer Miller will present the name of the low bidders and recommendations to city council, at city hall, Tuesday.

Expect Big Crowd At Benefit Game

Almost 2,000 Tickets Sold For Margaret Henry Home Benefit Game.

Approximately 2,000 tickets have been sold for the baseball game to be played between the policemen and Leslie House Stars Friday at Centennial field for the benefit of the Margaret Henry Home.

It is said that prominent business men and industrial leaders are supporting the game, which will derive receipts for a beneficial institution.

Emery, Lawrence County League pitcher, will pitch for the Leslie House and Tom McCormick, former prominent backstop, now a Lawrence County loop umpire, will catch.

In anticipation of taking two out of the three-game series, the Police will practice today. Both teams have won one game and when they play at Centennial field a crowd of thousands is expected.

Dorothy Mackaye Trial About Ready For Deliberation

International News Service
LOS ANGELES, June 27—Defense and prosecution will sum up their cases this afternoon in trial of Dorothy Mackaye, actress who is charged with seeking to gloss over the manner of her husband's death. Ray Raymond, Miss Mackaye's husband died after a savage fist fight with Paul Kelly, the actress sweetheart.

Kelly is serving under a one to ten year sentence for manslaughter. If Miss Mackaye is found guilty of attempting to conceal manslaughter she will be liable to one to three year prison term. The jury will probably have the case tomorrow.

Dinner To Follow Church Golf Play

Tuesday afternoon June 28 the members of the First Presbyterian church are going to demonstrate that a man can play golf and still be in good standing in the church. The annual get together of the golfing members of the church will be held at the New Castle Field club and following the argument on the golf course a dinner will be served.

E. A. Fenton is not an active golfer just a conversational one and in aid of drives and chip shots he will act as toastmaster at the dinner. Several speeches are to be endured by the guests.

"Just a little device," said Skinner, "but it will bring me millions. Every church in the country'll buy one. You see, it's a collecting box with different slots for different coins. All the silver falls on velvet, while coppers drop on a big bell!"

Capt. Campbell To Try For Record On Daytona Speedway

(International News Service)

LONDON, June 27.—Captain Malcolm Campbell, perhaps the foremost British racing-motorist now that Major Segrave has decided to retire intends to go to Daytona Beach, Florida, with his famous Bluebird racing car next November in an attempt to lower the speed record of 203 m. p. h. established by Segrave February last at Daytona. Campbell has hoped that he may be able to equal the present speed record of 240 m. p. h.

Bluebird, the Napier Lion engined automobile which Captain Campbell built at a cost of over $40,000 which held the record at 174 m. p. h. until Segrave's achievement, is now undergoing reconstruction. An entirely new engine, another Napier, is being built like her and the car will have a redesigned body and other modifications.

Campbell's plans will appeal to the sporting public of the world. In the first place his attempt will be entirely a one man show, without financial and other assistance of any big automobile corporation. In the second place Campbell is noted for the fact that he has consistently, for many years, set up new speed records whenever his own standing record has been broken.

Experts who have been in consultation with Campbell are confident that Segrave's record will be broken. If Campbell should set up a new record, it will be a big stride forward in automobile engineering knowledge, for unlike Segrave's Sunbeam car, Bluebird is of orthodox car design. The new Bluebird engine will have 445.7 horsepower against Segrave's 1,000 but it is stated the smaller engine will be a</

Who's To Be Vice President? Here Are Few Good Guesses

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Vice presidential eligibles are being more talked about now than at this same season four years ago.

Then nobody seemed to think anything but the heads of the rival national tickets mattered much. This time politicians are devoting considerable thought to the job of providing them with suitable tails.

The fact is, some real issues are beginning to loom up, which wasn't the case in 1924.

Naturally the party managers are anxious to get on both sides of 'em—a presidential candidate "pro" and a vice presidential candidate "con."

This makes 'em more choosy as to second place than they were before.

Assuming that President Coolidge lugs the Republican standard again, which continues to be a first-class bet, a good farm relief-er must be picked to bring up the rear.

Vice President Dawes is one, but it isn't certain that he cares to repeat, though he'll stand for promotion—if he can get it. It's also uncertain whether Cal wants any more of Dawes. They haven't been a very harmonious pair.

Frank O. Lowden would be ideal.

but, a candidate for President or nothing, he's turned down the vice presidency already.

Aside from Dawes, Senator McNary of Oregon is the man probably most frequently mentioned—not enough to make him anything like a cinch, but perhaps enough so to make him the most conspicuous possibility.

Governor John Hammill and Assistant Secretary of War Hanford MacNider, both of Iowa, have followings. Senator Curtis of Kansas is suggested as an off-side chance.

Not so very many men are considered available. Agricultural exigencies trim the number down.

On-time Democratic side, it's almost absolutely necessary to go on the theory that Al Smith will get the presidential nomination.

This isn't because he probably will, because he probably won't, even though he's the strongest single candidate. It's necessary to go on the theory because, if he doesn't, the Lord knows who will, and it's necessary to agree on somebody or vice presidential candidate can't be discussed.

If Smith gets first place, the Democrats' choice will have to be a southern dry.

He ought to be from the corn belt, too, but he can't be from there and, at the same time, be from the South, and the West, while important, isn't absolutely vital as Dixie.

Frank O. Lowden would be ideal.

As a southerner, Congressman Cordell Hull of Tennessee is enjoying a decided boom. Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi has his roosters likewise. Their geography's right and so's their ardency. Either one would mix well with Al.

As a corn belt-er, E. T. Meredith, another dry, from Iowa, might do, but he's too far north of the Mason-Dixon line.

A funny thing about the Democratic situation is this:

If the wets name the head of the ticket, they unquestionably will try to straddle, by putting a dry in second place. All the preliminary talk indicates it.

But if the drys name the head, there won't be an ounce of compromise in 'em. They'll name a dry vice presidential candidate, too.

Does this mean that the drys have more nerve than the wets, or less policy, or what? Nobody seems to know.

June 27, 1927.

Capitol Building To Become Museum

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., June 27.—Historians of Colorado and lovers of all that scents of the early days of the Centennial state now are in the throes of a bitter controversy, which bids fair to test the memory of the "oldest settler."

The question beseiging the historians is whether Colorado's first capitol building—a log hut, which once was located at Colorado City, now a part of this city, was torn down or still stands. The question reached the controversial stage a few days ago when Spencer Penrose, capitalist and mining man, purchased to save from destruction a log hut, long regarded as the first capitol building, and announced his intention of removing it from its present site to Broadmoor.

The contributing causes of crumbling are the sulphurous acid in London atmosphere through the use of coal fuel, the city's rainwater (which contains carbonic acid, sulphuric acid and ammonium salts) and the presence of bacteria and small plants in the stone. Some of the bacteria and plants are in the stone before it is quarried.

The material mainly used in London buildings—especially of the older type—is limestone, which easily decays from the effects of acid. The sulphur compounds in the air mix with the lime, and this combination causes the decay.

So far no remedy for this decay has been discovered.

Industrial Research has appointed a committee to investigate the cause of the trouble, and if possible find a solution. So far the committee has studied the cause of the decay but has been unable to find a remedy.

Prepare To Mail
New Applications
To Four Million

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, June 27.—The bureau of motor vehicles today began checking its files in preparation for the mailing of nearly four million renewal applications to automobile owners and operators.

Address changes must be in the bureau not later than July 15 to insure receipt of the application from which the department mails. Failure to secure the application form promptly usually results in delay in obtaining license plates. The department furnishes a form for such changes.

Benjamin G. Eynon, the registrar, asked that persons who both own and operate motor vehicles include the license number of the car as well as the operator's license number. Bureau employees in their checking of applicants have found many mistakes in the noting of title numbers. This number is found on the owner's license card at the extreme right and under the numerals which indicate the horse power or chassis weight.

Applications will not be mailed to those who did not hold licenses during 1927 but under the new motor code. Effective January 1, operators may obtain a license without examination if they have proof of having had one within the previous three years.

Man, 77, Regains Sight
After Twelve Years

LONDON, June 27.—After being blind for 12 years, James Donaldson, 77, suddenly recovered his sight. The first person he saw was his son, whom he did not recognize because he had grown bald. Twelve years ago, while Donaldson was out walking, everything "suddenly went black." His sight returned the other day just as suddenly and unaccountably as it had vanished.

A western editor retired the other day with $100,000. He worked hard, helped people, sponsored worthy causes, lived a good, clean life, set a fine example, and then found oil in his backyard.

What this country needs is a lawn grass that grows more slowly.

Many Guests At Camp Of Scouts On Sunday

A Sunday in camp is an experience that the scouts at John M. Phillips Camp enjoy only once during their sojourn. It is the one day in the crowded two week camping period, in which the boys have a chance to learn the value of quiet and rest, for that should be as much a part of their scout training as any of the rest of the program.

Although weather conditions did not permit the holding of Sunday services at the camp fire ground, the boys received religious instruction in the camp auditorium, where they sang appropriate songs and were taught concerning biblical characters who were always prepared for the great tests of their faith.

Big Sunday Meal

Extensive preparations are always made for the largest meal of the camping period; this is the Sunday dinner, in which each stockade has a chance for competition in original table decoration. Each stockade has its own table, where the boys eat with their stockade leader.

Stockade 'Dave Crockett' won the prize for the best table decorations. An extra helping of ice cream was the prize. Under the leadership of John Watson, the boys showed themselves to have quite a lot of knowledge concerning the art of catering.

The expert decorators were: John Watson, Harry Dute, Avery Rigsby, Stewart Loveridge, James Vangorder, Vergil Saxon, Bob Kennedy, Sam Blatchford, Cyril Jones, George Winter, Bill Wheeler, Junior Brown, Ferris Hartley.

Many Visitors

Over 100 visitors were in the camp Sunday afternoon and evening. Some were parents of the boys, but many of them were interested in camp itself, while still others came to find a place of rest away from the rushing public. The John M. Phillips Scout Camp is certainly the place to find such a sanctuary, for there are few more delightful and picturesque spots in the whole country. The scouts have been erecting all sorts of rustic furniture, and this adds greatly to the attraction and popularity of the camp.

Scouts Win Scalps

Almost a score of scouts obtained enough honor points in scouting and camping to pass the requirements for scalps. Most of scalps awarded during this week were for wayseekers. The Wayseekers are the new scouts who came into camp as papooses. They have passed the necessary steps to obtain their first scalp which is a skull cap denoting their rank.

Ed Jenkin and Bill Wheeler are advanced scouts in the scalp system who have taken a step farther and become Sagamores, while Harry Jute obtained his pathfinding scalp.

Scouts Get Awards

Scouts who have passed requirements for various scalps:

Bill Wheeler, Sagamore.
Junior Brown, Wayseeker.
Harvey Clyde, Wayseeker.
James Eickett, Wayseeker.
Harry Dute, Pathfinder.
Jack Jones, Wayseeker.
Bill Kissick, Wayseeker.
Reed Kimpel, Wayseeker.
Jack Marshall, Wayseeker.
Jack Porte, Wayseeker.
James Sotus, Wayseeker.
Vergil Saxon, Wayseeker.
Bill Woodworth, Wayseeker.
George Winter, Wayseeker.
Charles Zeigler, Wayseeker.

High Point Scorer

James Vangorder was the high point scorer for Saturday with 150 honor points to his credit. Jack Porte came second with a ten point margin of 150 honor points.

Brown Scores Highest During Week

Junior Brown was the highest point scorer of the week. His honor points for the week totaled 530. While James Sotus ranked second with 505 points for the week.

Saturday's inspection honors went to stockade, Dave Crockett, under the leadership of John Watson. Points scored were 92.

John Hodge, of New Castle, was registered as a new camper for the second week of this period.

Bordeaux Mixture Best Used For Plant Disease; McCulloch Offers Aid

Lawrence county potato fields are to the point where they should be sprayed in order to protect the plants from disease.

H. R. McCulloch, county agent of the Lawrence County Agriculture Association is busy today visiting farms of men who have never sprayed a field before. He stated that there would be glad to visit the farm of any potato grower and show him how to spray his plants.

McCulloch gives the following as is the bordeaux mixture made up of copper sulphate and lime. He stated that it was best not to give the amount of mixture as some may make the wrong solution and ruin his plants.

Any person desiring the amount of materials to be used may secure the information from Mr. McCulloch at his office in the Dean building on South Croton avenue.

certain weather conditions that permit safe landings. A number of flyers are killed each year, but for the most part, it is not the fault of the plane, but rather due to the handling.

Thomas was loud in his praise of the intrepid young flyer, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, in crossing the ocean in 33½ hours of flying time, but contended that Lindbergh can not be ranked the greatest aviator of the time, there are many Army pilots, just as capable fliers, but "Lindy" took his chance and made good. The most daring part of the Lindbergh flight was the fact that the "kid" went alone, and with very little knowledge of long distance flight. It was a game exhibition and the youngster is deserving of all the credit that has been heaped upon his young head.

New Castle Firm
Secures Contract

MERCER, Pa., June 27.—The E. C. Carbin company, New Castle, has been awarded the contract for the construction of two and one-half miles of ash and slag road in Springfield township. The road will be started at Leesburg and will run to the Union Supply company store at Mine No. 5.

The cost, approximately $7,000, will be divided among the state, county and township. This road will furnish an outlet for a populous community. Work will be started at once.

Posters In P. O. Lobby Here Part Of Over Two Million Used In World Man-Hunt

Posters which have hung in the lobby of the New Castle postoffice for some time, containing pictures of the three De Autremont Brothers who were wanted for train robbery and murder during the hold-up in Oregon and who were recently captured, were a part of the greatest effort ever made in this manner by the government to capture wanted men.

From Washington the facts are learned that nearly two and a half million of these posters were printed and scattered broadcast not only in the United States but in every country in the world. The effort to capture the De Autremonts was the greatest man hunt the world has ever known.

It is recalled here that one of the three was taken in the Philippines and the other two were recently taken in Steubenville, O. All pleaded guilty to the hold-up and murder charges in Oregon and were given life sentences.

The posters remained in the post office lobby after the capture, and an added notation was made that they had been captured.

The capture of this trio four years after the crime and the magnitude of the effort made to capture them is another emphasis of the fact that the United States postal authorities never let up in their trailing of wanted criminals.

Who will get the rewards offered for the capture of the trio has not as yet been made known.

Lawrence County Joins Select List

Now One Of Nine Counties In State Free From Tuberculosis

HARRISBURG, June 27.—Nine Pennsylvania counties now are free from bovine tuberculosis and have been designated as "modified accredited counties" by the state and federal officials, it was announced today.

The latest county to be added to the list is Lawrence, home county of Secretary of Agriculture Jordan Butler. Cameron, Clearfield, Indiana and McKean have been accredited during the past year and Mercer, Crawford and Jefferson have been accredited a longer period. Complete county tests have been made in Potter and Union, but those counties have not yet been accredited.

Sixty Five More Forfeit Licenses

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Pa., June 27.—The department of highways today announced the revocation of fifty-five drivers' licenses and the addition of ten more names to the blacklist. There were 24 revocations for intoxication and nineteen for reckless driving. Four licenses were revoked for transporting liquor.

Henry L. Reiger, Erie, was included in those who lost licenses for intoxication.

Revocations for reckless driving included Elmer J. Kichline, Easton; Charles Pfahler, East Stroudsburg; Francis Schuler, Wilkesbarre; Harry Souders, Bethlehem and John Williams, Scranton.

New Castle Pastor To Speak At Zelienople Donation Day Program

Annual visiting and donation day at the Lutheran Orphans' Home at Zelienople will be observed Thursday, June 30. The program will begin at 2:30 in the afternoon. A pageant, "The Lord of Creation," will be given by children of the home, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Nicholas and Miss Bessie Brown. Short addresses will be delivered by the Rev. A. M. Stump of St. Paul's Lutheran church, New Castle, and the Rev. G. E. Swoyer of Mt. Zion Lutheran church, North Side, Pittsburgh.

This annual event at one of the finest institutions of its kind in the state, is growing in popular favor. About 5,000 persons are expected to gather on the grounds of the home for the event to inspect the buildings and learn more of the efficient manner in which orphans, half-orphans and otherwise dependent children are receiving the care and training which will qualify them for service in church and state.

Activity of Department of Agriculture guards who patrol roads in the Japanese beetle quarantine area already have caused considerable alarm to bootleggers who move their merchandise in cars and trucks according to talk at the Capitol. The road guards may stop any truck or car leaving a quarantine area and examine its contents for farm produce which has not been inspected. The fact that the road guards are more numerous than the state policemen and have no other duties but guarding roads has contributed to consid-

Baker's Illness Has Political Effect In State

Road Guards For Japanese Beetle Check Run-Running Too

By WILLIAM B. BROWN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 27.—Continued illness of W. Harry Baker, former Republican State Chairman, is sure to have a marked effect on political moves in certain sections of the State. Since Baker was deposed as chairman he has followed the new leadership in the party. His illness, which dates back several months has prevented him from political activity of any kind, but he has numerous friends throughout the State and his advice is sought constantly by those who followed him in former years.

erable curtailment in rum running, according to reports.

Capitol guides say that more parties of school children visited the big building this year than at any time in history. Bus loads of children have been brought here from points as far as 100 miles away. The regular tourist season has been broken in getting under way although each day finds a number of cars from other states visiting the building.

Man Held In Manslaughter Case At Butler Must Support Family

BUTLER, Pa., June 27.—Willard Fair, was ordered to pay $30 a month to his wife and give a bond for $600 at criminal sentence court Saturday by Judge John R. Henninger, after a hearing on a charge of desertion and non-support, brought against him by his wife had been heard before the court.

Fair was acquitted this week of intoxication charge, but is held for manslaughter in death of Mrs. Gertrude Davies of New Castle.

At the hearing it was brought out by Mrs. Fair that he had done nothing toward the support of his children or herself.

Vaccinate Children Now Steen Advises

Parents of children who will attend school for the first time this fall are advised to have their children vaccinated by Dr. William L. Steen, city health officer.

The health physician says that by having the arm vaccinated now the resultant sore arm will be over with before the child enters the class room.

Children without certificates cannot be registered for school if they have no vaccination certificate.

New England State Tourists Coming Thru

According to owners of roadside stands along the New Castle-New Wilmington road, the auto tourists that are coming through this section this month are coming to a surprising extent from the New England states.

While there are hundreds of tourists from other sections the proportion coming through from the New England district is much larger than in any previous season. Most of them are on their way to Pittsburgh.

The large proportion of tourists from this area of the United States may be accounted for by reason of the fact that the Sharon-Mercer road is closed at the present time, it is suggested. Many tourists who would go across to Mercer and to the Pittsburgh highway from that village are now coming through New Castle and on through to Butler.

Tourist traffic is increasing daily according to the same sources of information.

District Inventors Get U. S. Patents

By GEORGE H. MANNING
Washington Correspondent of The News

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 27.—Andrew Christianson of Butler, has just been granted a patent by the United States Patent Office for his invention of a new type of electric railway car.

The car of Mr. Christianson's invention has a body similar to ordinary steel cars but has a entering and exit platform in the mid portion. Steps from the platform extend downwardly from one edge of the platform toward one side of the car with a trap door movable into horizontal position over the steps. Vertically disposed half-door sections above the trap door are constructed to move in opposite directions forming an opening for entering or leaving the car. The inventor has assigned his patent to the Standard Steel Car Company of Pittsburgh.

Andrew Sage of Farrell Borough, was granted a patent for his invention of a combined cover holding down and pressure relief device for manways. Donald Graham Murray of Grove City, was granted a patent for improvements in a compressor.

A car coupling with an adjustable link is covered by a patent which has been granted to George W. Graser of Beaver Falls. The patent has been assigned to the Koppel Industrial Car and Equipment Company of Pittsburgh.

Booster Grange Meetings Are Held

J. Audley Boak, State Grange Head, Speaks At Several Gatherings.

A series of tri-state booster grange meetings were held last week in New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania from Tuesday until Friday. These meetings were well attended according to J. Audley Boak, head of the Pennsylvania State Grange. He reports that about 35,000 attended the meetings held in Butler, Indiana, Fayette and Blair counties.

These meetings were held in the afternoon although picnics at which speeches were given, were held in the morning.

Twelve meetings were held in Pennsylvania. Mr. Boak, his secretary, and other lecturers traveled about over the state giving the talks in this state.

A. H. Fullerton of Lawrence county presided at the meeting held at Butler. Mr. Fullerton is a member of the state executive committee.

Auto Accidents Are Reduced In City Says Chief

"We realize" said Chief of Police Henry Dysart this morning, "that the motorists are not observing the stop sign regulations for main thoroughfares, to the letter, but we do know that through the resulting care taken by the motorists in crossing or going into main thoroughfares since the regulating signs were put up has been very beneficial and reduced the number of accidents to a minimum."

"Flagrant or frequent violations of the regulations" continued the chief.

Luzerne County Has 100
Times As Many Arrests
For Dog Law Violations

HARRISBURG, June 27.—Officials of the Pennsylvania Bureau of Animal Industry believe continued abuse of the laxity of the present dog law by dog owners is slowly bringing about a change of sentiment in regard to tolerating what they term the "dog nuisance." This sentiment, if aroused, they say, will undoubtedly result in a demand for more regulations.

A total of 3647 persons were prosecuted in the state during the first five months of the year for violating the state dog law. The greatest number—370—was in Luzerne county and

Hay And Straw Burned In Fire

Firemen were called to the stable on the property of the New Castle
Works of the Carnegie Steel company
Saturday afternoon by an alarm from box 52. Straw and hay in the mow of the stable in which the company keeps its four leashed employees, was found to be on fire. It had probably been set on fire by sparks from some of the ladies or other similar equipment of the plant. The loss was confined to the straw and hay and has been placed at $35 by Fire Chief Lynn.

NEW CITY HALL AGITATION LIKELY TO FADE FOR TIME

Work now under way at the City hall seems to indicate that at least one agitation that turns up every so often at City hall, will be eliminated for a time in the future—that of the project to sell the City hall.

The work that is now being done is that of installing a heating system for the entire City hall.

Heretofore every office in the building has been heated by an individual stove system. This was one of the great handicaps of the building, and most every winter resulted in the old report bobbing up again that the City hall was to be sold.

With a modern heating system installed in City hall, it is probable that the agitation will not be heard for a long time, and that city officials will continue to hold forth at East and Washington streets.

Annual Reunion
Of Battery B. On Tuesday, June 28

Program Will Be Given In High School Auditorium At Mt. Jackson.

Annual reunion of the historic Battery B. First Pennsylvania Light Artillery of the Civil War will be an event of Tuesday June 28 in the auditorium of the North Beaver township high school at Mt. Jackson.

An enjoyable occasion of the surviving veterans of this company is anticipated along with the meeting of friends from this community. A special invitation is extended to all Spanish-American War Veterans and World War Veterans.

A picnic dinner will be served at noon in the Knights of Pythias hall in Mt. Jackson to which everybody is invited to bring their baskets.

An attractive program is planned for the afternoon in the auditorium. Charles F. Ball is chairman of the program committee. Prof. Blazell of the faculty of Slippery Rock State Normal school will make the principal address of the afternoon. Music will be a special feature of the day.

EAST BROOK FOLKS

HUNT HUGE SNAKE

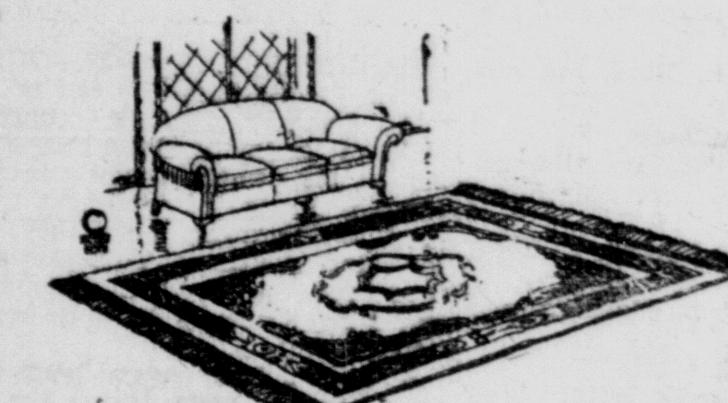

Snake stories are in season and East Brook checks in with one that bids fair to stop everything from now on.

John J. Holmes, well known farmer of that vicinity brought in a story this morning that a huge snake, approximately 15 feet long and as thick around as a man's leg, was cruising the woods around East Brook.

Mr. Holmes did not see the snake himself but states that many of the neighbors up there did. Mr. Holmes is a teetotaler which may account for his not seeing it.

Trade at Haney's, the Friendly Store

THE "NEW IDEA" in Furnishing the Home

There was a time when the family bought furniture almost entirely for its utility.

Today, with our Better Home Movements, with our understanding of what home environment means (especially if there are young folks in the family) with our improved standard of living—today we buy furniture for its beauty, its influence on all members of the family, as well as for utility purposes.

If your home is not furnished from this viewpoint you will no doubt be interested in our Trade-In or Exchange Department Plan, which enables you to trade in, as part payment, any of your old furniture that no longer "belongs".

There is no charge for this service, for it is but a Haney Service. There is no difference in the price of the new furniture you select on the Trade-In Plan. There is no difference in the Credit Extension.

We will be glad if you will drop in to talk it over.

Segrave, With World Speed Record, Retires From Automobile Racing

(International News Service)
LONDON, June 27.—Major H. O. D. Segrave, holder of the world's speed record of 207 miles an hour, has definitely decided to rest on his laurels and retire from automobile racing. To this end he has tendered his resignation to the Sunbeam Automobile company, the makers of the car with which he made new records at Daytona Beach, Fla., and intends to go in for a business as widely disassociated from motoring as the poles.

"I have won every big race in Europe; I have fulfilled my ambition to be the first man to travel more than 200 miles an hour—what more can I do in speed motoring?" said Segrave in announcing his final decision. Under the terms of his contract with his new employers Segrave will have two months a year free to devote to his new hobby of motor-boat racing in which he has great ambitions.

"Even for stout old prima donnas who after all are not built for speed there comes the right time to make their bow and retire" added Segrave. "It is the same in my case. I have never driven better than I am driving today but the next step is 250 miles an hour and I should say that is a long way off. I am just as likely to kill myself doing something unimportant. I have had a great deal of luck."

"I feel I have done all I can be experimenting at high speeds. Some trifling mistake might get me killed so I have decided to go into business. Most of the big racing drivers that I used to look up to when I started have been killed."

NEW CASTLE DEFEATS CLEVELAND IN TWO GAMES

Timely Hitting And Fielding Is Feature

New Castle Scores Double Victory Over Fast Tellings Outfit Saturday

First Game Ends 9 To 6; Second Tilt Results In 8 To 2 Victory

By "BUGS" WALTHER
Demonstrating the gentle art of pounding out base-hits when they mean something, and fielding in a sensational fashion, the rejuvenated New Castle O. & P. League team, captured both ends of a double-header with the Cleveland Tellings, here Saturday afternoon. The first game ended 9 to 6, and the night-cap affair resulted in an 8 to 2 victory.

By virtue of their double triumph over the strong Telling outfit, the local stock took a decided jump on the market. New Castle by the way has won eight of their past ten games, and this record is not to be sneezed at either. The New Castle team Saturday gave as fine a demonstration of playing as one could care to see.

Locals Hit Timely

When hits were needed the locals hit, and their total for the afternoon's efforts was twenty-two safe blows, including a home run by Byak, a triple by Feigert and ever so many extra base hits and singles. New Castle has a hard hitting outfit. The fielding of the local contingent left nothing to be desired. "Sanky" McCullough the local third-sacker turned in several circus catches of hard hit liners down the "hot corner," and incidentally this youngster handled thirteen chances in the two games without a misplay. Nine times in the first game, McCullough snared what looked like sure enough base-hits and turned them into put-outs at first. The fans gave McCullough a big hand for his efforts. New Castle had but two errors in the twin-bill. Flynn played a liner to left field bad, and Brehanney wobbled in a grounder.

Mark Jamieson the big-right-hander from Ellwood City took the mound for New Castle in the first game, and sailed along in his usual line manner until the eighth chapter, when the Tellings found his delivery for five straight hits. Steen relieved Jamieson and held the enemy safe for the next inning and two-thirds. Jamieson limited the visitors to but five-hits until the fatal eighth. Jamieson, however, gets credit with the victory, as New Castle had secured a lead of 9 to 5 before he was removed from the box.

Score in First

New Castle found the offering of Maholic to their liking and pounded out base-hits with apparent ease. Three hits in the first inning produced four tallies, after Maholic had walked McCullough and Feigert. Four more New Castle tallies trickled over the plate in the fourth inning, with Lawrence doubling against the left-field fence. Brehanney and McCullough turning in singles, and McCoy drawing a free ticket to first. An error and a walk gave New Castle another run in the fifth.

Cleveland had eleven hits in the first game, but they came in scattered lots and, therefore, they didn't prove dangerous. New Castle also had eleven hits in the first game, divided between seven of the players.

Steen Pitches Well

With Carl "Molly" Mels nursing a sore arm, in the second game, William "Bill" Steen veteran major league hurler ascended the mound for New Castle, being opposed by William "Bill" Abel. Steen brought all of his cunning into play and held the visitors to four hits in the first five innings, and then Steen gave way to "Lefty" Feigert the new comer to the local team. Feigert succeeded in setting the Tellings down

Coaltown To Play
Ellwood Tuesday

The Coaltown team will play Ellwood City, in a County League contest at 6:15 o'clock on Tuesday night, at the Coaltown Field, it was announced today.

All players of the Coaltown team are asked to report to the field as early as possible.

The International Cyclist Union, in which the United States is represented, will conduct the world's bicycle championships in Germany, from July 15 to 25. The events will be divided between Cologne and Elberfeld.

New Castle Will Play Elks Here Wednesday Night

League Leading Beaver Falls Elks Scheduled For Local Park Wednesday

New Castle's hustling O. & P. League team will tangle with the Beaver Falls Elks, here on Wednesday night at Centennial Park. The game is called for 8:15 o'clock. It will be the second appearance of the year, of the strong Elks outfit.

The Beaver Falls team in their Decoration Day game here several weeks ago, white-washed the locals 4 to 0. "Red" Whitmore the former Bellefonte Academy football star hurled the game for the Elks. It is likely that either Whitmore or Semler will take the mound for the Elks here Wednesday.

Manager Mels said today that unless plans are changed at the last minute, that "Lefty" Feigert would pitch for New Castle. Feigert's presence in the lineup is essential, due to his hitting.

The first half of the league will close next week, and it looks as if the Beaver Falls team would capture the first half championship. The locals are in sixth place today.

HIGHWAY POLICE
TO ENFORCE LAW

Last Warning Has Been Given, Declares State Highway Head

Some auto drivers in this vicinity are evidently unaware that the state law requires license plates to be visible at all times, and that plates covered up by bumpers are illegal.

It would be well that they give attention to this matter at once, as the following message from Harrisburg, announces that state highway police are to begin a campaign against them at once. The announcement says:

Members of the state highway patrol have been ordered to make arrests for every violation of the motor laws relative to dirty, defaced and obscured license plates. Benjamin G.

Eynon, registrar of motor vehicles, announced today.

The order resulted from instruction to that effect given by James L. Stuart, secretary of highways.

Present laws, governing license plates provide for fines of $10 to $25 or five days' imprisonment.

"Results have been unsatisfactory in our press campaign," the registrar said, "despite hearty co-operation on the part of newspapers. Chiefs of police and burgesses have promised to aid us and this fact was made known to the public. The reaction appears to be a studied disregard for the law amounting almost to open defiance. This bureau can and will not permit this to continue. My instructions have gone forward to the highway patrol and I shall look to that organization to clean up the license plate situation."

"In explanation I want to say that I do not criticize the manner in which the patrol has handled this problem up to the present. From the patrol I learned that about 40 percent of all vehicles registered in the state are operated in violation of this provision. Improvement was too slow and I have ordered the final step to be taken at once."

"The final warning note has been sounded."

White House Roof Was Near Collapse

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 27.—For years the old roof on the white house was in serious danger of collapse, Lt. Col. U. S. Grant, 3rd, in charge of reconstruction work on the mansion, revealed in a report today.

The menace was more serious than the public was permitted to know, Grant said. The white house, with its decayed timbers, was also a grave fire hazard, he added.

Many of the roof trusses had become so rotted that they had failed to act as girders and were held in place only by the flimsiest support, Grant reported. The weakened condition of the roof first was reported to President Grant in 1873.

Work of installing a new roof and reconstructing the second floor of the mansion is practically completed. All this work will be completed early next month, and the cleaning, painting and redecorating will be finished in time for President and Mrs. Coolidge to move into the white house when they return in September from their summer vacation.

the church at 4 o'clock eastern standard time.

Thursday evening there will be a game the Mahoning M. E. vs. the Model Bakers at the E and A grounds. All games will be played at 5:30 Eastern Standard time.

METHODIST CHURCH.

This evening the monthly meeting of the Sheehy-Miller auxiliary will be held in the church parlor. At this meeting the annual election of officers will take place.

Wednesday evening at the prayer service the pastor Rev. J. N. Croxall will speak on the subject "Christ the Vine." Scripture will be from the 15th chapter of the book of John.

Complying with the charter of the annual congregational meeting will be held Wednesday evening after the prayer service. At this meeting three trustees will be elected for a term of three years. Also any other business anyone wishes to bring up at this time will be discussed.

The nominees for trustees to be elected are as follows: R. C. Cathers, Joseph Gilmore, Geo. Meyer, Q. E. Davy, O. C. Mauck and J. H. Gwin.

AT. Y. W. C. A. CAMP.

Ruth Schnebly of Newell avenue and cousins, Margaret McCormick of Cherrytree Pa., and Beulah Longacre of Detroit, went to Camp East Brook this morning to spend a week.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Wednesday evening at the mid-week prayer service M. L. Wallace, elder commissioner from the Sheenago Presbytery to General Assembly at San Francisco, Cal., will give his report of the assembly.

Following the prayer service the Willing Workers will have their monthly business meeting.

Friday afternoon at 2:30 eastern standard time the Opportunity Circle will have their monthly meeting in the church parlor.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

A teachers and officers meeting will be held Wednesday evening following the prayer service.

Friday afternoon at 1:30 eastern standard time the Ladies Misionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. Adda Robinson on Sunny Side at 1:30 eastern standard time. Mrs. Lincoln Kelly will be the leader for the meeting.

OUT-DOOR MEETING.

Sunday evening the Epworth League of the Mahoning M. E. church had their league meeting on the church lawn. A large attendance was present and the meeting proved very inspiring.

On Tuesday evening at the church there will be a cabinet meeting of the Epworth League. The cabinet retiring from office and the newly elected cabinet will have a meeting at 8:30 daylight savings time.

At this meeting plans for this year's Epworth League activities will be discussed. Also plans will be discussed about the Epworth League institute.

METHODIST PICNIC.

The general committee in charge of the arrangements for the Mahoning M. E. church picnic have selected Harding's Park for the place for the picnic to be held. This picnic grounds is located near Coopersville on the Hubbard road, a distance of about 15 miles from New Castle. The date, Wednesday August 3 has been set for the picnic.

The general committee in charge of the arrangements for this picnic is comprised of the Lookout class of the Sabbath school taught by Mrs. J. A. Waddell.
